

Sandip Foundation's
Sandip Institute of Technology & Research Centre, Nashik
Department of Management Studies
Academic Year 2017-18
Report on Expert Lecture

*****

Event Title : - Expert Lecture on “Human Rights ”

Date:- 29th September 2017

Conduction Duration: One Day

Venue: MBA –I Class Room

Resource Person:

1.Dr. Medha Saykhedkar

Coordinator : Prof Adesh Solanke

Objective :

1. To make Students aware about their basic human rights

2.To guide students on elimination of all forms of discrimination against race, sex, colour, religion and ethnic backgrounds.

About The Program:

Department of Management Studies has organized a Guest lecture for MBA Students on “Human Right”. The Guest Speaker for the Session was Dr. Medha Saykhedkar . In Her session she put forward some facts & figure that very few people are aware about their basic Human Rights& most people are being deprived of the same & their Rights are being Exploited specially of Women’s. She also explained that All human rights are indivisible, whether they are civil and political rights, such as the right to life, equality before the law and freedom of expression; economic, social and cultural rights, such as the rights to work, social security and education , or collective rights, such as the rights to development .She talked about the 30Human Rights & did spoke about Universal Declaration of Human Rights . She also said we Educated people must spread awareness among the Human Rights by organizing seminars in Rural area for Underdeveloped & under privileged People.

Outcome:

1. Students got aware about their Basic Human Rights

Photograph:

