About The Program:

Sandip Foundation's, Department of Management Studies had organized Guest Lecture for MBA students on “Leadership Technique ” . The Guest Speaker was Mr Ramneek Kapoor .While addressing the students Mr Ramneek Kapoor Said The lecture basically focused on leadership and the key factors that are required to become a leader. Before talking on leadership he started the conversation saying that people are the owners of their own life. If you want your life to be wonderful, it is your responsibility to mould it in the form you want.

He also talked about the brand of a person. The brand of a person is the quality that differentiates that particular person from others. A person must be aware of some of his /her qualities and those qualities should also be validated by others.

Then he brought the focus on leadership. As per the conversation, leadership is a guidance that is given to others. Leadership cannot be taught. It comes from experience. In this context, he also said that the key to success in an endeavor is the ability to lead others successfully. But before leading others you also need to know how to lead yourself.

He also focused on certain important points related to leadership. He said that the basic definition of leadership is to influence others. The next important point was to priorities things and that is the key to leadership. He also said that the most important ingredient of leadership is Integrity. A leader should also have right attitude. What happens to a person does not matter but how that person respond to that situation is more important. He also mentioned that a leader should have a clear vision because it is the indispensable quality of a leader. The most important lesson of leadership is staff development. He/she should have focus on guiding the followers. That is the most important role of a leader.

Outcome:

1. Students were successfully able to learn what are the various roles played by a leader
