

SANDIP INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY & RESEARCH CENTRE, Nashik Department of Management Studies

Name of the Program: - Seminar on “Human Rights”

Day & Date:- Wednesday, 07th Sep 2015

Objective: - 1.To make students aware about the fundamental Human Rights

2:To make students aware about the ways in which human rights are exploited

Resource Person: - Dr Medha Shykhedkar

About The Program: Department of Management studies organized a one day seminar on “Human Rights” for MBA-I & II students. Dr Medha Sykhedkar was invited to deliver the lecture. Speaking on the topic she started with the brief introduction about what are various human rights & a brief history about how & why Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) was framed . then she shared some live examples about how the people are deprived of their human rights and adding to it she said small children , underprivileged group , disabled people & women are the victim who are deprived of their human rights. Speaking more about it she added we find violation of human rights in almost all the nations except few wherein the intensity is less. Many facts & figure were put forward about exploitation of human rights & that was an eye opener for students. The Seminar ended with question & answer session

Outcome:- 1. Students came to know about what are their fundamental Human rights

2.students also got aware about the ways in which their human rights could be exploited

Photographs -

