Guest Lecture on, “Corporate Expectations from Management Graduates”

Department of Management Studies had organized a guest lecture session on “Corporate Expectations from Management Graduates” for MBA Students on 04th September 2021. The Guest speaker for the same was Mr. Kunal Dhoke, CA who holds a position of Senior Accounts and Finance, in VIP Industries. Guest speaker highlighted some points during his speech / session when it comes to hiring employees for their organization; every recruiter has specific expectations of pupils. Apart from the domain expertise for which they are hiring, MBA students are expected to have other important skill sets that are essential for the company's development. Regardless of the firm, the following are the essential qualities that a recruiter looks for in an interviewee: 1. Leadership Skills 2. Interpersonal abilities 3. Adaptability 4. Analytical mindset 5. Time management skills

Guest lecture on, “Skills required to work abroad

Department of Management Studies had organised a guest lecture session on, “Skills required to work abroad” on 20th Dec 2021 for MBA II Year students. The Guest for the session was Mr. Sachin Parekh, Director London School of Digital Business (LSDB). He guided the students about various skills required to work abroad, such as personal skills, communication skills, fluency in English talking, etc. He guided the students on how to compete with the outside world. He also focused on various activities that improve awareness and identity, develop talent and potential, build human capital and facilitate employability, enhance quality of life and contribute to the realization of dreams and aspiration. The overall session was quite effective & hopes so we would see a change in personality of our students
