Venue: Online and Offline – Google Meet and Finance Cafe

Coordinator: Dr. Harshada Aurangabadkar

Objective:

- 1. To create a platform for students to present their pre-budget analysis in front of engineering students.
- 2. To encourage student participation and foster unconventional learning experiences in the field of financial management.

About The Program:

The Finance Café, Department of Management Studies, organized a two-week "Students Development Program on Discussion and Highlights of Union Budget" with the aim of providing students with a comprehensive understanding of Union Budget concepts. The program also sought to create a platform for students to present their pre-budget analysis in front of engineering students.

The activity was designed to encourage student participation and foster unconventional learning experiences in the field of financial management. The Students Development Program on Discussion and Highlights of Union Budget took place. The program focused on providing students with a deep understanding of the Union Budget by discussing its highlights and analyzing its implications. Students engaged in pre-budget economic analysis, sector-wise analysis, and explored the key factors shaping the Union Budget for the years 2022 and 2023. Through these sessions, participants gained insight into the intricacies of budgetary allocations and the government's fiscal policies.

The program was unique in that it was designed as an activity "By the Students - For the Students." The core team members of the Finance Café, namely Akash Jethani, Guruman Kaur, Vedant Tokekar, Saurabh Yadav, and Shivani Vaishnav, took consistent efforts to ensure the success of the event. They played a pivotal role in organizing and facilitating the various sessions, encouraging active student participation, and creating a vibrant learning environment.

Outcome:

1. The Students Development Program on Discussion and Highlights of Union Budget yielded several positive outcomes for the participants. Firstly, it provided students with an opportunity to develop and showcase their presentation skills on contemporary issues. Through in-depth study and analysis, students were able to demonstrate their understanding of Union Budget concepts and effectively communicate their findings to their peers
2. Secondly, the program proved instrumental in enhancing students' comprehension of the various concepts associated with the Union Budget for the years 2022 and 2023. By delving into pre-budget economic analysis and sector-wise analysis, participants gained valuable insights into the economic landscape and the impact of government policies on different sectors.
