Report on Guest Lecture on Equity Market

Event Title: Guest Lecture on Equity Market

Date: 12th September 2023

Conduction Duration: 90 minutes

Venue: MBA Department

Resource Person: Mr. Saiprasad Thul

Coordinator: Prof. Neha Wankhede

Objective:

1. Understanding the Basics of Equity Markets.
2. Empowering Students with Practical Knowledge.

About the Program:

During the guest lecture, Mr. Saiprasad Thul provided valuable insights into the world of equity markets. One key takeaway was the diversity of investment strategies available to market participants. He emphasized that investors can choose from a spectrum of approaches, ranging from long-term investing based on fundamental analysis to short-term trading using technical indicators. This understanding of different strategies is essential for investors to align their tactics with their specific financial goals and risk tolerances.

A recurring theme throughout the lecture was the paramount importance of risk management in equity trading. Mr. Thul stressed that while the equity market offers significant potential for returns, it also carries inherent risks. Strategies like portfolio diversification, setting stop-loss orders, and closely monitoring market news and events were discussed as essential tools for mitigating these risks.

Furthermore, Mr. Thul shed light on the psychological aspects of trading. He highlighted the role of emotions in decision-making and underscored the necessity of maintaining discipline and a rational mindset when trading in the equity market. Understanding the psychological challenges of trading can help investors make more informed and less emotionally driven choices.

The lecture also featured practical demonstrations and real-world case studies, enabling students to see how theoretical knowledge translates into practical application. These hands-on examples enriched the learning experience and provided students with tangible insights into equity market analysis and trading strategies.

Overall, the guest lecture by Mr. Saiprasad Thul not only offered a comprehensive understanding of equity markets but also equipped students with practical knowledge and strategies that can prove invaluable in their future careers in finance and investment.

Outcome:

- 1. Students who attended the lecture gained a deeper and more comprehensive understanding of equity markets. They now have a solid foundation in the basics, including the role of equities in the financial system and the various investment strategies available.*
- 2. The lecture empowered students with practical knowledge and skills related to equity trading. They learned about real-world strategies, risk management techniques, and how to conduct market analysis. This practical knowledge can be applied in their academic studies and future careers in finance and investment.*
