Objective:

- To develop essential interpersonal and communication skills among MBA students.
- To enhance students' confidence, teamwork, leadership, and presentation abilities.
- To prepare students for industry expectations and professional work culture.
- To improve employability skills through practical learning activities and corporate guidance.

About the Program:

The Department of Management Studies organized an engaging and highly productive workshop on "Soft Skills" conducted by Mr. Manoj Bhate from Nandi Foundation (Mahindra Pride Classroom). The session aimed at equipping MBA students with the essential skills required for personal and professional success in today's competitive environment.

Mr. Bhate, a highly experienced soft skills trainer, interacted with students through real-world examples, role-plays, and group activities. He explained the importance of communication skills, positive body language, teamwork, leadership qualities, time management, emotional intelligence, and professional etiquette. The workshop focused on building confidence, improving speaking abilities, and developing a positive mind-set for career growth.

Students also participated enthusiastically in team-based tasks and confidence-building exercises, allowing them to reflect on their strengths and areas for improvement. The resource person emphasized how soft skills play a crucial role during interviews, group discussions, corporate communication, and client interactions. Overall, the session was highly interactive, motivational, and meaningful, contributing significantly to the holistic development of the participants.

Outcome:

- Students improved their understanding of key soft skills required in corporate settings.
- They learned communication techniques, presentation skills, and teamwork strategies.
- The workshop enhanced students' confidence and prepared them for interviews and GDs.
- Learners gained practical insights into maintaining professionalism and workplace ethics.
- The session encouraged self-awareness, active participation, and continuous personal development.
