8. To strengthen alumni–institute interaction and create opportunities for continued engagement between the Department of Management Studies and its alumni.

About the Event

The Department of Management Studies, Sandip Institute of Technology and Research Centre, Nashik, organized an Alumni Talk on “Business & Career Opportunities in the Tourism Sector” on 30th September 2026 at 2:00 PM. The session featured Mr. Rahul Jagtap, Director, Jambudvip Tours and Travel, Nashik, as the resource person. Mr. Rahul Jagtap is an alumnus of the Department of Management Studies.

The event was planned as an industry–academia interaction to provide students with practical insights into the tourism and travel business. As an alumnus and an industry professional, Mr. Jagtap shared his professional experiences and interacted with students on the practical aspects of management and professional life.

The session provided students with an opportunity to understand how management knowledge acquired in the classroom can be applied in actual organizational and business situations. The interaction particularly helped students connect theoretical concepts with professional expectations and workplace practices.

The resource person discussed the business and career opportunities available in the tourism sector, enabling students to look beyond conventional career options and explore the tourism and travel industry from both an employment and entrepreneurial perspective.

The interaction also highlighted the importance of developing professional skills, industry orientation, customer understanding, communication abilities, adaptability, and practical management capabilities for succeeding in the service sector.

The session was interactive in nature, allowing students to listen to the experiences of an alumnus, understand professional realities, and seek guidance related to their career development. The official thank-you communication from the Department notes that the interaction provided students with insights into the corporate world, practical aspects of management, professional expectations, and application of management concepts in real-life organizational situations.

The event also served as an effective platform for strengthening the relationship between the Department and its alumni. The Department expressed its appreciation for the alumnus's willingness to share knowledge, experience, and guidance with the students and emphasized the value of continued alumni association and support.

Key Areas Covered During the Interaction

The Alumni Talk provided students with practical exposure to the following areas:

3.1 Tourism as a Business Sector

Students were introduced to the tourism sector as an area offering diverse business and professional opportunities. The session helped students understand the importance of the tourism and travel industry in the broader service economy.

3.2 Business Opportunities in Tourism

The interaction encouraged students to explore tourism not only as a career option but also as a potential entrepreneurial domain. Students were able to understand that management knowledge can be applied to develop and manage tourism-related businesses.

3.3 Career Opportunities

The session provided students with an opportunity to understand potential career avenues in the tourism sector and the professional expectations associated with working in a service-oriented industry.

3.4 Practical Application of Management Concepts

The resource person shared industry-oriented insights that helped students relate management concepts studied in their MBA curriculum to practical organizational situations. This helped reinforce the importance of experiential and application-based learning.

3.5 Professional Expectations

Students gained insights into the expectations of the professional world, particularly the need for effective communication, professional conduct, adaptability, customer orientation, and practical managerial capabilities.

3.6 Learning from Alumni Experience

The alumni interaction provided students with an opportunity to learn from the resource person's professional journey. Such interactions help students understand the transition from management education to professional life.

Interaction with Students

An important component of the event was the interaction between the resource person and the students. Students had the opportunity to listen to practical experiences from an alumnus who has established himself as a professional in the tourism and travel sector.

The interaction encouraged students to think about their own career aspirations and the different ways in which management education can be applied in diverse industries.

Students were encouraged to understand the importance of:

- Practical knowledge along with academic knowledge.
